

Sample Interview Questions for Alison J Kay, PhD

What inspired you to write this book?

Summarize your book in one to three sentences as if you were speaking to someone unfamiliar with your book and its topic.

What is the overall theme, central topic, subject or concept of your book?

Why do you think this book will appeal to readers?

How is your book relevant in today's society?

What makes your book different from other books like it?

What do you want readers to take away from your writing?

How did you learn about the topic? (personal experience, education etc)